

Information for airline operators

According to the fact that your airline company operates flights between the third country and the Czech Republic, the Police of the Czech Republic requires sending of passenger's data (API data). On the basis of the Act on Civil Aviation (Act No. 49/1997 Coll., as subsequently amended), Section 69 (1) of this act you are obliged to send these data. Please send the passenger's data to this SITA address: PRGCZ2X in format: UN/EDIFACT based on IATA PAXLST specification. The Section 69 (2) of the Act on Civil Aviation defines the range of required data.

Detailed instructions and descriptions of API data transmission you can find on the website: <http://www.policie.cz/clanek/predavani-udaju-o-cestujicich-64.aspx>. Please contact the Directorate of Foreign Police Service in case of technical complications or legal questions concerning to API data transmission on pavel.prchlik@pcr.cz, martin.lukes@pcr.cz.

Furthermore, your airline company is also obliged to send passenger name record (PNR) data from your reservation systems to the Police of the Czech Republic. This obligation is based on the following acts:

- Act No. 49/1997 Coll., on civil aviation, as amended, Section 69a, Section 93 and Section 94*
- Act No. 273/2008 Coll., on the Police of the Czech Republic, as amended, Section 84a, Section 84b, Section 84c and Section 84d*
- Act No. 17/2012 Coll., on the Customs Administration of the Czech Republic, as amended, Section 58.*

Information concerning the transfer of PNR data can be found on the website <https://www.policie.cz/clanek/prenos-pnr-dat.aspx>, where there are detailed instructions, a registration form, technical specifications and a detailed guide for carriers. Please contact the Czech passenger information unit with questions related to the transfer of PNR data on the following email: piucz@pcr.cz.

Your obligation to provide above mentioned data to the Police of the Czech Republic in defined range will start 30 days after your receiving of this letter. In case of breaching the obligation Police of the Czech Republic can initiate an administrative procedure and impose fines up to 500 000 Czech crowns (20 000 EUR) in the meaning of Section 93 (5) of the Civil Aviation Act.
