US Tourists Return to Czech Republic

Statistics

According to new official statistics, more than 100,000 American tourists travelled to the Czech Republic in the second quarter of 2022, propelling the US to the 4th place in terms of the number of incoming tourists. The first three places were taken by neighbouring countries, where ground transportation can be assumed to service a high percentage of travellers. In terms of air transport, the Americans thus may take even a higher place in the numbers of visitors. Delta Air Lines direct connection with New York, alongside our campaign designed to support incoming tourism from the USA, which Prague Airport launched as a part of the Touchpoint initiative, have had a significant impact on the result.
