Effective 27th March 2023, Korean Air starts flying from Prague Airport to the South Korean capital again. The route, last operated in March 2020, is back to connect the two cities and Prague Airport expects it to boost the tourism as well as business travel both ways. The return of this important scheduled route between Prague and Seoul is a testimony to the efficiency of the Touchpoint initiative, where we team up with Czech tourism boards in promoting our capital in selected key markets.

Four Airlines Awarded during Prague Airport B2B Event

See You at Routes Asia 2023

This year, Prague Airport representatives will be flying over to the city of Chiang Mai, Thailand, to attend Routes Asia. The aim of the participation in this leading aviation industry event in the Asia-Pacific region goes hand in hand with our continuous commitment to further enrich the air connectivity between the Czech Republic and Asia.

Croatia Becomes Part of Schengen Area

With Croatia being one of the most popular holiday destinations among Czech citizens, this decision definitely brings a lot of perks. Furthermore, for travels from Prague Airport, this will also mean a shift between terminals. Until now, flights to Croatia were handled at Terminal 1. This year, when the services commence once again for the Summer Season, flights to Croatia will be handled at Terminal 2.
