Prague Airport Aviation Business Team at Routes Europe 2022

After a two-year pause caused by the Covid-19 pandemic, the Aviation Business Team, accompanied by a CzechTourism representative, attended this year's Routes Europe conference, held in Bergen, Norway. Over thousand delegates representing hundreds air carriers, tourist organisations, and airports from around the world took part in the event.

Full flight marks Delta's return to U.S. from Prague

On May 27, 2022, Delta Air Lines landed back at Václav Havel Airport Prague, restoring the only nonstop service between the Czech Republic and United States. Both the inbound and outbound flights operated at near capacity showing the demand for this route – Delta's first in more than two years.

New direct routes launched in June

Effective this June, passengers have the option of new direct flights from Prague to Mykonos (operated by Eurowings once a week from 2 June), Santorini (by Smartwings twice a week from 3 June), Turin (by Ryanair twice a week from 5 June), Baku (by Azerbaijan Airlines twice a week from 17 June) and Tivat (by Air Montenegro twice a week from 18 June 2022).

Special livery with the motif "Prague loves You"

85th anniversary is featured in special Smartwings livery. With the motif "Prague loves You", we want to boost the interest of tourists in travelling to Prague again. The livery will visit dozens of destinations in which it will promote Prague for the next two years.

Extended Opening Hours of Restaurants
