Google Users Vote Prague Airport the 5th Best in Europe

Airport Ranking

This exceptional result is an improvement of three spots compared to last year's ranking. Out of more than 20,000 user reviews, Prague Airport received the rating of 4.3 on a five-point scale. The ultimate European airport ranking was conducted by the Holidu search engine using the reviews from Google Maps. "I am happy that Václav Havel Airport Prague has been included among the top five airports according to Google map user ratings. I view this as an acknowledgement of the efforts of all our employees who work at the airport," Jiří Pos, Prague Airport CEO, commented the result.

Increases in Frequencies to European Hubs

We are less than a month away from the winter flight schedule effect. In addition to the already announced new destinations, we are expecting further increases in frequencies between Prague and leading European hubs compared to last winter. Air France, KLM, and Finnair will continue to operate the same number of frequencies as through the summer season. SWISS will increase the frequency between Prague and Zurich to four times a week, while Iberia will add three frequencies on the route to its hub, connecting Prague with Madrid 10 times a week.
