See You at Routes Europe & Air Cargo World in May

We are excited to meet with you, aviation professionals, on two big occasions this May. Come talk to the Prague Airport team at Routes Europe in Łódź, Poland, Stand H30, to discover new opportunities prepared for you at Prague Airport.

Prague Airport representatives are also very much looking forward to attending Air Cargo Europe in Munich, Germany, where we have teamed up with Skypport in our joint efforts to promote Prague's cargo potential. We will be looking forward to your visit at the respected cargo fair at Hall B2, stand 133.

Business Breakfast with China Airlines and Taiwan Tourism

As part of our support to one of our most recent Prague Airport family members, China Airlines, which will start operating its flights from Taipei to Prague on 18th July, we have introduced the airline to more than 50 representatives of travel agencies and travel agents in the Czech market. This was done over a delicious business breakfast hosted at Prague's fabulous Mandarin Oriental Hotel in the presence of Prague Airport, China Airlines, and Taiwan Tourism bureau representatives.

Jet2.com Announces East Midlands from Prague

A new destination to be serviced from Prague was recently announced by Jet2.com. Effective 10th November, the airline will launch operations to the East Midlands region in Great Britain. This new connection will be available twice weekly, every Monday and Friday, expecting to attract tourists from both countries, alongside business travellers in both directions.

Cyprus Airways Relaunches its Larnaca – Prague Service

Cyprus has long been a popular destination with Czech tourists. Therefore, it is no surprise that there is a carrier returning to serve the destination from Prague. Cyprus Airways is relaunching its seasonal connection from Larnaca to Prague starting this June. Flights will be operated twice a week, every Wednesday and Sunday, using Airbus A320s.

Meeting with Travel Agency Representatives

In preparation for the busy season ahead of us, Prague Airport organised the annual event for its valuable partners from the ranks of local travel agents, tour operators, and ticketing agents. The events, this year held in Prague and Ostrava to also cover the regional offices, were a great success and provided the team with the opportunity to gather valuable insights and present this season's innovations. Each event was also attended by an airline representative, to build and enhance relationships between the airline and travel agents. This year, British Airways & Iberia were kind enough to attend our event in Prague while TAP Air Portugal accompanied Prague Airport to Ostrava.
