FLIGHTS RETURN TO PRAGUE AIRPORT

A total of 25 airlines have already announced their plan to resume direct flights from Václav Havel Airport Prague. Specifically, more than 70 destinations have been listed, 57 of which will be already in operation by the end of this week. With regard to the selected key destinations, Prague Airport has already received confirmation of resumed operations to London, Paris, Amsterdam, Frankfurt and other major hubs. Other airlines will resume their direct services in July and in August and connect Prague with different destinations across Europe, including popular holiday destinations. Furthermore, two long-haul routes will return back to Prague in July. Passengers can use the direct routes to Dubai and Doha.

All up-to-date information about resumed routes is available on special Prague Airport website.

MOODY'S CONFIRMS CREDIT RATING WITH STABLE OUTLOOK

Moody's Investors Service, one of the renowned rating agencies, has confirmed the Prague Airport Group's credit rating of Aa3 with a stable outlook, which reflects a very low credit risk. The Moody's agency decided to re-award the Group this high rating, especially with regard to the strong financial profile of Prague Airport, perceived as resilient even to uncertain operating prospects. Prague Airport, Czech Airlines Handling and Czech Airlines Technics thus maintained the same level rating despite the current unprecedented impact of the crisis caused by the spread of COVID-19.
