PRAGUE AIRPORT OFFERS DIRECT CONNECTIONS TO 121 DESTINATIONS AS PART OF ITS WINTER FLIGHT SCHEDULE

As of Sunday, 27 October 2019, the winter flight schedule became effective featuring direct flights from Václav Havel Airport Prague to 121 destinations in 46 countries, which is six more destinations than last year. New destinations that have been added this winter include, for example, Lviv, Kharkiv, Chisinau, Florence, Beirut, Nur-Sultan and Keflavik. Prague's winter flight schedule features a total of 15 new destinations. During the winter season, 60 airlines, of which 13 are low-cost carriers, will operate regular direct flights from Prague. In addition to new destinations in Eastern Europe, passengers can also take advantage of services to places traditionally only operated by summer seasonal flights from Prague, such as Iceland and Malta.

DOWNLOAD NEW GAME FOR ALL AVIATION FANS

World of Airports, a new game for mobile devices that was developed in cooperation with Prague Airport, has entered the world of aviation fans. The game offers an authentic virtual environment in which each player manages an airport and an own airline, and shows all ground handling procedures carried out behind the scenes at every airport. To celebrate the release of the game, Václav Havel Airport Prague held a launch event in October, attended by a game journalist Alžběta Trojanová and an aerobatic pilot Petr Kopfstein. The game is now available to download from the App Store and Google Play. Use this QR code to unlock Václav Havel Airport Prague directly in the game.
