PRAGUE AIRPORT ENHANCES CYBERATTACK PROTECTION WITH NEW CYBER SECURITY OPERATIONAL CENTRE

Václav Havel Airport Prague has launched operations of one of the most modern and technically advanced cyber security workplaces in the Czech Republic. The new Cyber Security Operational Centre (CSOC) is designed to strengthen the protection of the strategic infrastructure of the largest international airport in the country against cyberattacks and to prevent the misuse of airport information systems. The centre runs 24 hours a day, during which it performs complete monitoring of internal IT systems and all operations performed in order to detect threats in a timely manner and ensure an immediate and appropriate response.

NEW EXHIBITION, A TREAT FOR ALL HISTORY LOVERS

Prague Airport and the National Technical Museum in Prague, together with the Bohemia Aviation Association, have officially introduced a photo exhibition commemorating the 75th anniversary of the return of Czechoslovak pilots serving in the British Royal Air Force during the WW2.

The exhibition named "Konečně doma! Finally home!", installed in the connecting corridor between the terminal buildings, is open from the beginning of September to the end of November 2020.
